Newtown Historic Association will Sponsor its 30th Annual Market Day on Saturday, September 16th (rain date Sunday, September 17th) from 10:00 am – 4:00 pm.

Market Day, the Newtown Historic Association's 30th annual colonial craft fair will be held on Saturday, September 16th, rain date Sunday September 17th. There are over 60 crafters and demonstrators coming with a wide variety of interesting crafts, from bee keeping, quilting, rug braiding, spinning and woodcarving.

The Crossing Community Church will have a revolutionary war encampment in the backyard of the Court Inn.

"A Better Way" Farm will be there with their team of Belgian draft horses and their wagon to give everyone horse drawn hayrides around the Court, Penn, Congress and Mercer Sts. block.

Our ever successful Festival of Foods will feature local Newtown restaurants offering delicious luncheon treats. Restaurants who will be asked to participate are Isaac Newton's, Avalon Café, Temperance House, Lee's Hoagies, Great Harvest Bread and Tre Fratelli.

The special kettle corn vendor "Kornecopia" will be here this year along with the "Irish Lassie" for delicious funnel cakes and other treats.

There will be Open Hearth Cooking by people who uses only old methods of cooking and colonial recipes. Come and taste what delicious things that are being made and get a sample.

The raffle this year will be a $400 gift certificate to use toward a weekend at the historic "Duke of Windsor Inn", Cape May, New Jersey. Tickets are $1.00 each or 6 for $5.00.

We will be having candle dipping, face painting, and children's crafts and other activities. There will be sessions beginning at 12:00 AM until 3:00 PM on punched tin and other colonial crafts.

The "Sugar Sands Ramblers" Band will entertain from 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM. They specialize in authentic music of the Pine Barrens in South Jersey – it is a very lively group.

So come out and enjoy Market Day with all your friends and neighbors.
