

Newtown Historic Association
P. O. Box 303
Newtown, PA 18940

Press Release

Newtown Historic Association and the Newtown Library Company present
“Lucretia Mott – Quaker Abolitionist and Suffragette along with John and Abigail Adams”
All to perform at the historic Newtown Theatre”

A joint program of the Newtown Historic Association and the Newtown Library Company will be held on Monday, February 20th at 8:00 PM at the Newtown Theatre, 120 N. State St. Newtown.

In celebration of Black History Month, the Newtown Historic Association and the Newtown Library Company have invited reenactor, Kim Hanley, to portray Lucretia Mott, noted Quaker minister, abolitionist, and suffragette who will give an electrifying performance of her trials and tribulations. Lucretia Mott originally spoke at the historic Newtown Theatre back in 1855.

Also, Joe and Anne McKernan will portray John and Abigail Adams and they will give an intimate and interesting perspective on life after the Revolutionary War.

St. Mark’s AME Zion Choir and the Macedonia Baptist Church Choir will be performing a medley of spiritual favorites.

Admission is free – come and see this exciting program.

For further information call 215-968-7659 or visit the NHA Website www.newtownhistoric.org or www.newtownlibrary.com.

Mary Callahan - Publicity
Newtown Historic Association
215-968-3914
dcnhh@comcast.net