

NEWTOWN HISTORIC ASSOCIATION, INC.
105 Court St., Newtown, Pa.18940
215-968-4004

PRESS RELEASE

Newtown Historic Association presents
“VOTES for WOMEN!: Alisa Dupuy portrays Alice Paul”

The Newtown Historic Association will present Alisa Dupuy portraying suffragette, Alice Paul, on Sunday, March 29th from 2:00 to 4:00 PM at the Half Moon Inn, 105 Court Street, Newtown, PA.

Join us on Sunday, March 29th from 2:00 to 4:00 PM at the Half Moon Inn to see Alisa Dupuy, of the Ladies of History, portray the noted suffragette, Alice Paul. Alice Paul was a local Quaker and activist for the ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment to the U. S. Constitution to prohibit sex discrimination and the right to vote.

In recognition of the 100th anniversary of the passage of that amendment, “Alice Paul” will tell her story and the story of the struggles that she and others endured to secure the right to vote for women. After the performance, Alisa will answer your questions and refreshments will be served.

Tickets are limited for this event and are available for $25.00 per person on-line at newtownhistoric.org. Alternatively, contact the Newtown Historic Association at 215.968.4004 to secure your reservation to pay by check.

M. Bronwyn Jones, Publicity
215-504.8038 evenings
mbronwynjones@gmail.com